XXV Sunday

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

We want to thank everyone who participated in our flea market sale. To our inspiring senior group, the CCD kids, our cooks and everyone that helped make this possible. Huge thank you to all our donors and vendors to all that supported.

Saint Matthew Feast day September 21

Matthew must have been surprised when Jesus walked up to him and said, "Follow me." He probably fell off the stool in his customs booth!

Matthew, also known as Levi, was a tax collector in the town of Capernaum. Most tax collectors were hated by the Jews because they worked for the Romans, who had conquered the land. A tax collector could use his position honestly or dishonestly. The temptation to use the position to become rich was great. Now do you think the choice of Matthew was surprising?

Yet Jesus chose a tax collector to follow him, to learn from him, and to go out and spread the Good News to others. The call from Jesus was more powerful than the call of wealth. Matthew left his work as tax collector. He invited Jesus to a dinner where other tax collectors (publicans) and sinners were gathered. The Pharisees were upset when they saw this, and they said to the disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" Jesus heard them and replied, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous, but sinners."

We know nothing other than that about Matthew from the Scriptures, but we do know that Matthew preached the Good News of Christ, and at least part of the Gospel attributed to him was first written for the Jewish converts in Palestine. There is some uncertainty about where Matthew preached and where and how he died. Some say Matthew went to Persia; some say Syria and Greece, while others say Ethiopia. Yet we can learn much from Matthew. He was a man who knew quite well the power of money. He knew the comfort it could ensure, the recreation it could buy, the luxury it could provide. But he was wise enough to know what it could not do. Money could never give him that sense of peace deep inside. It could never befriend him when he was lonely or give him the strength and courage to go on when all else seemed lost. Money could never buy him forgiveness or love. But the love of Christ could do all this and more.

Once again thanks to all of the people that organized the annual summer festival, and all those that donated their time and work.
God Bless you.

The profit of the event, excluding the annual raffle, was:

OUR LADY OF CHARITY SCHOOL WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents,

Can you believe it's already the end of the fourth week of school? Teach us to number our days, that we may get a heart of wisdom!

8th graders go to Springfield on October 7: Students will travel from OLC by deluxe motorcoach and visit Lincoln's Tomb, the Illinois State Capitol building, and the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum, all for $20. What a deal! [The trip is subsidized by a grant we received.]

8th grade High School Placement Test preparation class starts at OLC on Sept. 26. Information on registering was distributed on Wednesday to all 8th graders. Space is limited to the first 16 students.

OLC's noon Mass on Sundays is an English language service. Families are encouraged to join us in church and attend that Sunday Mass with your OLC child. For a better experience, sit up front, and with younger children, explain what's going on.

Congratulations to all of our OLC Cross Country runners for a great job at their first meet last Saturday in Naperville. OLC's top runner of the week: Isabella Mata in 6th grade.

Fall soccer registration is on now. Call or visit Berwyn Recreation Department for info: (708) 749-6531. If your middle school student or 2nd/3rd graders would like to be on the same team, you can add our coach's name, Mr. Rick Castro, to the registration card when signing up. Otherwise, they may end up on random teams.

OLC Guitar Club (grades 4 - 8) started on Sept. 15. The club meets every Thursday for one hour beginning at 2:30. If you are interested, pick up a registration form from your child's teacher or from the office.

Volunteers must be VIRTUS trained: <https://www.olg-school.org/general-info>

Important dates:

- ▶ Wednesday, September 21: Early release (30 minutes before the regular time)
- ▶ Friday, September 23: No school (staff development day)
- ▶ Thursday and Friday, September 29 - 30: Parent-Teacher Conferences; 11:30 dismissal on both days

XXV Niedziela Zwykła

Jezus powiedział do uczniów: «Pewien bogaty człowiek miał rządcę, którego oskarżono przed nim, że trwoni jego majątek. Przywołał więc go do siebie i rzekł mu: „Cóż to słyszę o tobie? Zdadz sprawę z twego zarządzania, bo już nie będziesz mógł zarządzać”.

Na to rządcza rzekł sam do siebie: „Co ja pocznę, skoro mój pan odbiera mi zarządzanie? Kopać nie mogę, zebrać się wstydzę. Wiem już, co uczynię, żeby mnie ludzie przyjęli do swoich domów, gdy będę odsunięty od zarządzania”.

Przywołał więc do siebie każdego z dłużników swego pana i zapytał pierwszego: „Ile jesteś winien mojemu panu?” Ten odpowiedział: „Sto beczek oliwy”. On mu rzekł: „Weź swoje zobowiązanie, siadaj prędko i napisz: pięćdziesiąt”. Następnie pytał drugiego: „A ty ile jesteś winien?” Ten odrzekł: „Sto korców pszenicy”. Mówi mu: „Weź swoje zobowiązanie i napisz: osiemdziesiąt”.

Pan pochwalił nieuczciwego rządcę, że roztropnie postąpił. Bo synowie tego świata roztropniejsi są w stosunkach z podobnymi sobie ludźmi niż synowie światłości. Ja też wam powiadam: Pozyskujcie sobie przyjaciół niegodziwą mamoną, aby gdy wszystko się skończy, przyjęto was do wiecznych przybytków.

Kto w bardzo małej sprawie jest wierny, ten i w wielkiej będzie wierny; a kto w bardzo małej sprawie jest nieuczciwy, ten i w wielkiej nieuczciwy będzie. Jeśli więc w zarządzaniu niegodziwą mamoną nie okazaliście się wierni, to kto wam prawdziwe dobro powierzy? Jeśli w zarządzaniu cudzym dobrem nie okazaliście się wierni, to któż wam da wasze?

Żaden sługa nie może dwom panom służyć. Gdyż albo jednego będzie nienawidził, a drugiego miłował; albo z tamym będzie trzymał, a tym wzgardzi. Nie możecie służyć Bogu i Mamonie!»

święto św. Mateusza, Apostoła i Ewangelisty.

ŚW. MATEUSZ APOSTOŁ

Mateusz był Galilejczykiem. Jego pracą było pobieranie cel i podatków w Kafarnaum, jednym z większych handlowych miasteczek nad jeziorem Genezaret. W Palestynie pogardzano wówczas celnikami za to, że ściągali opłaty na rzecz znienawidzonych Rzymian.

Chrystus powołał Mateusza, gdy pewnego razu przechodził nad jeziorem. Być może Mateusz słuchał wcześniej mów pokutnych Jana Chrzciciela. Na wezwanie Chrystusa zostawił wszystko i poszedł za Nim. Nawrócony, zaprosił do swego domu Jezusa, Jego uczniów i swoich przyjaciół celników i współpracowników. W czasie uczy faryzeusze zarzucili Chrystusowi, że nie przestrzega Prawa. Ten jednak wstawił się za swoimi współbiednikami. Odtąd Mateusz pozostał już w gronie Dwunastu Apostołów.
